

I am strongly opposed to the NAB petition 04-160, as a traveling volunteer for the National Park Service I am often in localities where standard radio broadcasting is simply not available. Using XM Instant Traffic and Weather I am better able to plot my routes and save both time and gasoline. One does not appreciate satellite radio until one is situated where the only radio station, AM or FM, only provides hard popular music interspersed with the same commercials 24/7.